

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's law by allowing financial institutions the privilege of soliciting me. I have a PRIVATE telephone line and have discontinued using my home # for correspondence, just a small effort to protect my quite time. I will not do business with any bank that supports this!